Re: CFTC v. All City Investments, LLC, 16 Civ. 7372 (AJN)

Dear Judge Nathan:

We represent plaintiff U.S. Commodity Futures Trading Commission (“CFTC”) in the above-referenced matter. On March 20, the CFTC received from defendant Jamal Vance a copy of a letter from Mr. Vance to the Court dated March 14, 2017, which he submitted to the pro se office (see enclosed). In the letter Mr. Vance requests that the Court amend the Case Management Order (“CMO”) to extend certain discovery deadlines. Since receiving Mr. Vance’s letter, we have engaged in discussions with him and the parties have agreed to certain extensions of the internal discovery deadlines as permitted by paragraph 8 of the CMO entered by Your Honor on February 3. At this time Mr. Vance has not requested and the CFTC does not anticipate agreeing to any request to the Court to extend the deadline for the overall completion of fact discovery, which is June 2. Accordingly, it is the CFTC’s position that no action is required by the Court at this time with respect to defendant Vance’s March 14 letter request.

Respectfully submitted,
